British Navy Redistributed.

LONDON, JULY 14.—The Admiralty LONDON, JULY 14.—The Admiralty has just completed the scheme of naval redistribution outlined by the Earl of Selborne (former First Lord of the Admiralty) in December last by the addition of numerous battle-ships to the Channel. Atlantic, Mediterranean and reserve squadrons. There are now concentrated in nearby seas no fewer than forty-five battle-ships, all of modern construction: fifteen armored and twenty-seven other cruisers with their accompanying torpedo-boat filoidias, all ready for war at an instant's notice, as well as reserve vessels provided with grews.

Vote to End Chicago Strike. CHICAGO, JULY 14.-The railway question of calling off the strike. Recent disclosures regarding the action of truck drivers and other teamsters in doing the work of non-union drivers, combined with a failure on the part life, and I cannot express my gratitude to of the strike leaders to collect sufficient funds to pay benefits promptly, it is declared, have led to rebellion in the ranks of the express drivers.

Not to Lower Lake Level.

KINGSTON, ONT., JULY 14.-The International Waterways Commission closed its session here by hearing protests against any action that would less against any action that would lower the level of Lake Ontario. The commission gave assurance that it was not the intention to lower the lake level. The deepening of the Welland Canal was strongly advocated.

To Bury Sectionalism.

BELFAST, JULY 14 .-- An independent section of the Ulster Orangemen. by Commoner Sloan, has issued a striking manifesto to the country a striking manifesto to the country appealing for the burial of sectarianism, which now is dividing Protestants and Cathelics, and invoking the cooperation of all secular forces in the promotion of the national welfare. The manifestof expresses distrust of English parties, which, it says, will continue in the future as in the past to play off Catholics and Protestants against each other to the prejudice of the country's higher claims.

Asylum Attendants Quit.

CHATTAHOOCHEE, FLA., JULY 74. -Thirty attendants at the State Insane Asylum walked out as a result of a failure of the management to discharge D. W. Varborough, the bookkeeper, and his wife at the request of the attendints. The trouble grew out of a recent legislative investigation of the affairs of the asylum, the legislative committee reporting that a condition of great im-mocality existed there. As the report gave no names of the attendants felt that it reflected on them.

'Frisco Immigrant Station.

SAN FRANCISCO, JULY 14.—Modeled after the big immigrant station on Ellis Island, in New York Harbor, San Francisco is to have a detention station that will be adequate in equipment to accommodate the large volume of immigration coming into this port. The station is to be built on Angel Island, land for that purpose having been already set aside.

Boy Husband in Jail.

KALAMAZOO, MICH.. FULY 14.—A love romance was sadly interrupted here when Delbert Preston, fifteen sears sid, was taken from his girl bride, formerly Pearl Catherman, and lodged in the county jail on the charge of perjuring himself by giving a false age when securing the marriage license. Preston and Miss Catherman, the latter seventeen, gave their ages as nineteen. The Circuit Court will be asked to anough the marriage, but the young people declare they will be married again when the boy is old enough.

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"Before I wrote to you telling you how I felt I had doctored for over two years steady, and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suftered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I deedded to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegotable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started; I am regular and in perfect health. Because "Frau B. Schmelzinger. with several thousand dollars' worth of jewels on her fingers and only a few dollars in her purse, refused to answer dollars in her purse, refused to answer satisfactorily the questions put to her when she arrived in the first cabin of the Pennsylvania at the Hamburg-American pier, Hoboken, she spent today at Ellis Island prior to a hearing before the board of investigation.

Commissioner Watchorn, with an examining inspector, ordered the woman's detention yesterday, when she gave evasive answers, in spite of the fact that she talked English perfectly and said she had lived in this country twenty-six years, having been abroad but a few months. She had no definite destination, except that she was going to pasadena. Cal.

When sent to Ellis Island she was not herded with the other suspects, but was allowed to sit in the registering office until her case came up. Supt. Dobbler said he thought she had successfully passed him a year ago. The woman's peculiarity in wearing a dozen rings, with stones turned in, first attracted attention to her. The jewelry is worth several thousands.
